

Orchestre Français des Jeunes Talents

Antonin REY

Composer & Conductor

Violinist by training and Master of Orchestral Conducting from the Conservatoire National Supérieur de Musique de Paris (CNSMDP), where he studied with Maestro Alain Altinoglu, Antonin is diverse, experienced, and creative in his approach. He is committed to reconciling the arts. enthusiastic to reinvent the traditional concert. As an orchestral conductor, composer, writer and artistic director, he collaborates regularly with stage actors, directors, and scenographers. Striving to create new forms of musical performance, he founded his Ensemble des Possibles in 2011, based in Paris.

On the international stage, Antonin conducts the Moroccan Philharmonic Orchestra (Morocco) on a regular basis and has recently served as guest conductor of the Silesian Chamber Orchestra (Poland), the Banatul Philharmonic Orchestra (Romania), and I Solisti Aquilani (Italie). He also worked with Peter Eötvös, Esa-Pekka Salonen, Susanna Mällki, Arie van Beek, Carl Topilow, etc.

Antonin was laureate of the 2018 Ensemble Ecoute Composition Competition as well as recipient of the Jury's Choice Award at the 2023 Vedralis Competition. He joined the OFJT (Orchestre Français des Jeunes Talents) as principal conductor since 2020.